

Paul explains that there are four eternal resting places, those being Celestial Glory, Terrestrial Glory, Telestial Glory, and No Glory. For as a seed of grain is planted in the earth, it dies and brings forth a new body, some wheat and to another barely. So too are we planted on the earth and following our death we will be resurrected a new body, some to one glory and some to another depending on our faithfulness to the commandments of God and the condition of our heart. [Read 1 Cor 15:12-28, 35-58]

“He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.” [Revelation 22:11-12]

The Great Plan of Redemption

ETERNAL LIFE

As Job explained, our life in this world is short and full of trouble [Job 14:1-2, 10, 14]. We are encompassed about with trials and tribulations of every kind. If our vision is not upon God, it is easy to fall in to despair. For what is the purpose of life? A man might build a successful career, have a family, create an elegant home, and be surrounded with friends and money. But one day, we all shall die. Then what?

“19:25 For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: 19:26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: 19:27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.” [Job 19:25-27]

Every soul will be judged according to their works in this life and will receive the wages of whom they have listed to obey. The greatest gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

If we will choose God to be our vision so that we might keep His law with a joyful heart and so endure the crosses of the world. Then we have the blessed promise that we will receive eternal life, which is not a delineation of time but a state of living. For all will be raised from the dead to be judged according to their works, both the just and the unjust [Read John 5:24-29, Hebrews 9:27, Romans 14:10-12, 2 Corinthians 5:10, Romans 2:1-11, Revelation 20:12-14].

Our reward will depend on the condition of our heart. How did we receive the ministry of Christ once we heard the Gospel message? [Matthew 13:3-9, 18-23].
