

1:9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. 1:10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. 1:11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not. 1:12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: [John 1:9-12]

The Great Plan of Redemption

THE HOLY GHOST

The Graphic JP

In the second chapter of Genesis (KJV), the Lord God testified that He made the earth, and everything contained therein, before they were physically in existence. The same is true for mankind. Yet how can this be, are there two creations? The simple answer is yes.

“The Spirit of God hath made me,
and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life” [Job 33:4]

The Scriptures testify that God created everything, including man, spiritually before they were ever naturally upon the face of the earth. For God created the body of man after the image of both Him and His Only Begotten Son, and formed man from the dust of the ground. After which, God gave man a portion of His Spirit when He “breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.” [Genesis 2:7]

How do people across different generations, religious upbringings, and ethnicities know that it is wrong to steal, to lie, or to commit murder? Is it because the justice system states these actions are illegal, or were these actions wrong even before they were written and instituted into law?

Perhaps the reason why our conscience, meaning an internal or self-knowledge or judgment of right and wrong, is similar for all peoples despite time and culture is because we were all created by God the Father and Jesus Christ the Son through the power of the Holy Spirit.
